
FREE book for Frank from SAIFAI as promised!

Hi Frank and the other guy!

Remember my gesture of good will that I told you about in my last mail? Well, I have bought you Acharya's first book, The Christ Conspiracy, brand spanking new and I am going to send it to you as promised, TOTALLY FREE of charge and I want you and your pal to read it from cover to cover. I want you, as a duty to yourself and for the people who visit this website, to fully investigate every snippet of the historical and archaeological evidence presented in that book and then post it on this site that shows Jesus was who the bible says he is/was. Then simply post under that, all the evidence (from that book), which shows Jesus to be a mythological figure and we can compare the two.

So now you have no excuse to examine both sides. If however, you "do" refuse to examine the evidence, then it will be obvious to everyone that you and your buddy are totally biased, not objective and have no intention of presenting an honest case.

Send me a postal address where you can collect your book and we can take it from there!

Thanks SAIFAI

What I find a bit curious is that the most reactions I see about Zeistgeist concerns Part 1, The religious part.

I did not see many comments about part 2 or 3.

The big questions is WHY!!!

Is it about fear that it might be true that the Christian religion and others is based on mythology.

Please comment on that

Hi Dollie, thank you for your reply.

At first I thought it was a reply from Frank and his friend who run this site.

You said: What I find a bit curious is that the most reactions I see about Zeistgeist concerns Part 1, The religious part. I did not see many comments about part 2 or 3. The big questions is WHY!!! Is it about fear that it might be true that the Christian religion and others is base_d on mythology.

Unfortunately, you are basically correct, the Christian Religion IS based on ancient myths and non-historical biblical characters derived, (personified) from the then known celestial objects. Out of the three parts of Zeistgeist, Part1 has caused the biggest storm/debate. This site was made to defend/debunk the information presented in Part 1, purely based on a person's belief/faith. I bought Acharya's book, The Christ Conspiracy for Frank and his friend and have offered to post it to them FREE but they have so far failed to reply. These 2 guys are moderators of this, their own website and they must have seen I have said I have bought them the book from which basically, Zeistgeist Part 1 was based.

I am STILL awaiting their reply and an address to where I can send them their book.

Thanks SAIFAI
